HITTY

Actual Size Paper Doll to Color

by Wendi Dunn

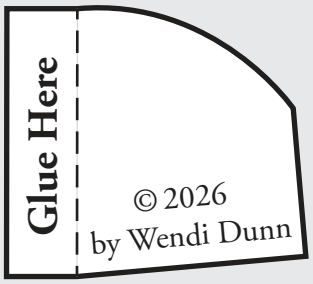

Daguerreotype Dress
(Hitty's original dress)

Visitors to the Stockbridge Library in Massachusetts can view Hitty, a small, antique wooden doll, made famous by Rachel Field and Dorothy P. Lathrop in their award-winning children's book: Hitty: Her First Hundred Years.

Directions: Print page on card stock. Color and then cut out doll, dress and stand. Fold the tab on the stand and glue to back of doll.
