A Tale of Two Hittys

5th Anniversary

HITTY

Actual Size Paper Doll

by Wendi Dunn

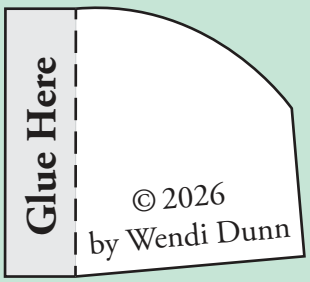

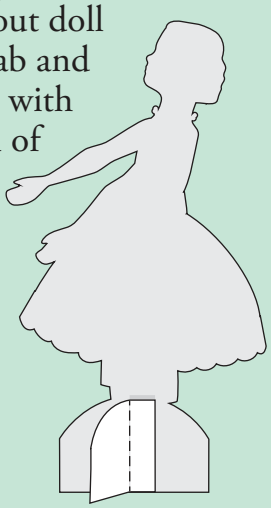

Daguerreotype Dress
(Hitty's original dress)

Visitors to the Stockbridge Library in Massachusetts can view Hitty, a small, antique wooden doll, made famous by Rachel Field and Dorothy P. Lathrop in their award-winning children's book: Hitty: Her First Hundred Years.

Directions: Print pages on card stock or photo paper. Cut out doll and stand. Fold the tab and attach to back of doll with glue. Then cut out all of her clothes.

Attach Here

Source: https://ataleoftwohittys.com/hitty-paper-doll

Extra clothing made by Dorothy P. Lathrop

Floral Dress

Velvet Bonnet

Sunbonnet

Library Dress

Historic Bonnet

© 2026 by Wendi Dunn. This work is openly licensed via CC BY-SA 4.0 Creative Commons Attribution-ShareAlike 4.0 International.